

Enabling Resilience

LGiU
the local democracy think tank

Resilience should be positive, proactive and oriented towards the long-term

Resilience is social and political, as well as technical.

Resilience requires more effective use of knowledge and better understanding of places.

Resilience needs to incorporate and manage unpredictability and randomness.

